Following its very successful first two years - the 3th Indigo Award is now open for submissions. Enter today and show your best designs to the best of the best in Graphic Design, Digital Design, UI/UX, Games Design and Design for Social Change. Check out their broad list of subcategories and choose the ones that fit you the most. The competition is open to individual designers, small and large design teams, studios, and students from around the world.

Indigo Award was created with a designerâ€™s objectives and needs in mind. The Award's Ceremony is held annually in the worldâ€™s most fascinating and cutting-edge cities. This year, the venue does not disappoint as the participants of the upcoming 2020 ceremony will collaborate in Bangkok, Thailandâ€™ a cultural epicenter for travelers, food enthusiasts, the spiritually enlightened and lovers of art and architecture.

The exemplary international jury panel includes journalists, respected experts and designers such as Arin Bhowmick (Vice President of Design at IBM), Pip Jamieson (Founder of The Dots), Jeroen van Eerden (Creative Logo & Identity Specialist worked with Google, Disney, Adobe, and Tinder), Tracy Chou (An entrepreneur, software engineer, and diversity advocate. Former engineer at Pinterest) and many others. They meticulously judge each entry, paying close attention to Indigoâ€™s criteria, which includes innovation, design and the use of technology.
