LensCulture Street Photography Awards 2025 is an international photography competition that celebrates the most compelling street photography from around the globe. Open to both amateur and professional photographers aged 18 and over, this renowned contest seeks to showcase vibrant, authentic, and thought-provoking imagery captured spontaneously on the streets. Participants are invited to submit powerful single photographs or cohesive series, each evaluated meticulously by a distinguished panel of industry-leading photographers, curators, and visual storytelling experts.

Beyond recognizing photographic talent, LensCulture Street Photography Awards 2025 provides unmatched global exposure. Selected works will be prominently featured in curated online galleries, exhibitions, and widely distributed editorial features, ensuring maximum visibility across influential photography communities and social media platforms. Photographers also benefit from in-depth written reviews, portfolio listings, and promotional opportunities designed to enhance their reputation and professional growth, solidifying LensCulture's reputation as a platform that significantly advances the careers of emerging and established photographers alike.

Entrants are encouraged to present images that capture unique moments of urban life, offering insights into diverse cultures, intriguing narratives, or captivating visual encounters. By highlighting creativity, technical excellence, and original perspectives, LensCulture aims to inspire photographers worldwide to push boundaries and redefine contemporary street photography. As one of the industry's most respected competitions, the LensCulture Street Photography Awards 2025 continues to foster an inclusive and dynamic community passionate about exploring the extraordinary within everyday cityscapes.

The first single-image submission is free, with each additional single image entry costing $10; a package of 5 single images (judged individually) is $35, and submitting a series of up to 10 images (judged as one body of work) costs $45.

Eligibility

Open worldwide to anyone aged 18 and older, regardless of professional status, including those who have previously been finalists (though previously cash-prized winners may not re-win for the same work).

Prize

Cash awards are tiered by category: for series, 1st place receives $3,500, 2nd $2,000, and 3rd $1,000; for single images, 1st place wins $2,000, 2nd $1,000, and 3rd $500, and all winners may have their work featured in exhibitions, group shows, LensCulture's gallery, and other promotional channels.
