Pink Lady Food Photographer of the Year is the global competition celebrating the art of food photography in a huge variety of applications. The Awards celebrate this magnificent diversity in what is truly the stuff of life.

The 24 categories cover the full cultural range of the depiction of food in society â€“ there is something for everyone. From styled food for magazines to images of families eating together in celebration of religious festivals, from depictions of the realities of food production to food growing in its natural setting.
