â€¢ Computer Animation / Film / VFX

â€¢ Interactive Art

â€¢ Digital Communities

â€¢ u19 â€“ CREATE YOUR WORLD

â€¢ [the next idea] voestalpine Art and Technology Grant

â€¢ Visionary Pioneers of Media Art

A work may be entered in only one category. An artist may submit more than one work. The artists retain all copyrights.

Since 1987, the Prix Ars Electronica has served as an interdisciplinary platform for everyone who uses the computer as a universal medium for implementing and designing their creative projects at the interface of art, technology and society.

There is no entry fee.

Eligibility

The Prix Ars Electronica is an international competition open to anyone worldwide.

In Computer Animation /Film /VFX, Interactive Art, and Digital Communities, the Golden Nica grand prize is accompanied by a cash award of â‚¬10,000 (approx. 13,700 USD).

There are also two Awards of Distinction and 12 Honorary Mentions in each category. The Golden Nica in u19 "CREATE YOUR WORLD" is endowed with â,5,000. The recipient of [the next Idea] voestalpine Art and Technology Grant receives â,7,500 and additional support from the Ars Electronica Futurelab in further developing his/her prizewinning concept. The winners in each category will be selected by a five-person jury made up of experts from all over the world, who also have the right to nominate candidates.

The prizewinning projects will be presented to an international audience in conjunction with the Ars Electronica Festival and featured in the annual Ars Electronica publication.

Moreover, all projects submitted for Prix Ars Electronica prize consideration will be entered into an online archive that currently contains approximately 55,000 entries and thus offers unique insights into the development of media art.
