Ruth Borchard Self-Portrait Prize 2023

Category: Multiple Disciplines
Deadline: March 31, 2023
Website: graphiccompetitions.com

The Piano Nobile Gallery in London and the Ruth Borchard Collection invite all artists to enter the Self-Portrait Prize 2023.

Artists of all ages and abilities are invited to enter. Submissions can be in any size, medium, form or style. Historically entries have included both abstract and figurative works, the subject presented alone or in a group and, via a range of media; including but not exclusive to, paint, drawing, digital art, textiles, sculpture, photography, ceramics and collage.

The only requirement is that the work must be a self-portrait. Artists whose work goes on to be shortlisted will be required to deliver their artwork to Piano Nobile in London.

Entry fee is 38 GBP from a UK based bank account. International entry fee is 48 GBP.

Eligibility

Open to artists of all backgrounds, established and emerging, from anywhere in the world.

Prize

From the artworks submitted the 2023 prize judges will select a winner of the 10,000 GBP (approx. 12,170 USD) Ruth Borchard Prize and a number of distinguished entries will be acquired for the Next Generation Collection.

Alongside the winning artwork, a curated selection of distinguished and shortlisted artworks will be exhibited at The Atkinson Museum, Southport, from September - December 2023. The exhibition will coincide with the Liverpool Arts Biennial.
