Deadline: March 1, 2024
Website: graphiccompetitions.com

The Alpine Fellowship Visual Arts Prize 2024, a prestigious competition organized by the Alpine Fellowship, a charitable foundation based in London, is a beacon of opportunity for artists worldwide. With a commitment to fostering artistic expression and dialogue, this annual competition invites artists aged 18 and above from all nationalities to submit their best work that aligns with the year's theme, "Language." This theme encourages a diverse range of interpretations, allowing artists to explore and express their unique perspectives on how language shapes our understanding of the world.

The competition is known for its inclusivity and embraces all forms of media, including but not limited to painting, sculpture, photography, video, and installation. This open approach enables a wide array of artists to participate, showcasing their talents in their preferred medium. Each applicant is permitted to submit one entry, ensuring that each submission is a thoughtful and focused representation of their artistic vision. The Alpine Fellowship emphasizes the importance of originality and creativity in each entry, seeking to discover and celebrate new voices in the visual arts.

The Alpine Fellowship Visual Arts Prize is not just an award; it represents a platform for artistic growth and international recognition. The prize draws attention to emerging and established artists, offering them a chance to be acknowledged in the global art community. The competition's focus on a specific theme each year sparks a rich and varied dialogue among artists, critics, and audiences alike, making it a significant event in the art calendar. The Alpine Fellowship's dedication to the arts is evident in its continued support for creative talents, making the Visual Arts Prize a coveted and respected accolade in the art world.

There is no entry fee.

Eligibility
