Submissions are now open for the Young Ones Student Awards 2020, one of the world's most acclaimed competitive showcases for advertising, digital communication, and design students.

There are three ways to enter the competition: Young Ones Brief, Young Ones ADC, and Young Ones Portfolio.

Young Ones Brief presents students with a variety of advertising creative briefs by renowned brands. Your challenge: download that brief and put all of your creative powers towards creating a campaign that will make that brand shine.

Young Ones ADC allows students to get recognized for their projects by submitting them into the same categories that you'll find in the ADC 99th Annual Awards.

Young Ones Portfolio judges students not just on a single project, but on their entire body of work thus far.

Please note: the deadline for submissions is March 2, with a late deadline of March 9, 2020.

Entry fee: 45 USD per entry (regardless of single or campaign). Each portfolio category counts as one entry.

Eligibility

Students from colleges, graduate schools or portfolio schools are eligible. You cannot participate if you are working as a creative at an agency or a design company, with the exception of an internship. Entrants must be 18 or older.

Although The One Club encourages students to work as a team, a single student can work on and submit entries on his/her own.

Prize

All finalists will receive a one-year One Club Membership and featured in The One Club for Creativity archives.

For the Young Ones Brief Competition, One Show Pencils & Merit Certificates will be awarded.

For the Young Ones ADC Competition, ADC Cubes & Merit Certificates will be awarded.
